

CONGRESSWOMAN EDDIE BERNICE JOHNSON

RANKING MEMBER, COMMITTEE ON SCIENCE, SPACE AND TECHNOLOGY
HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

proudly hosts

Roundtable on STEM Education:

An open discussion on how to improve education in the areas of Science, Technology, Engineering & Math (STEM)

9:30 a.m. JUNIOR ROTC COLOR GUARD PRESENTATION

9:35 a.m. WELCOME AND OPENING REMARKS

Congresswoman Eddie Bernice Johnson
Ranking Member, House Committee on Science, Space, and Technology

9:40 a.m. REMARKS

Congressman Ralph Hall
Chairman, House Committee on Science, Space, and Technology

9:45 a.m. PANEL 1: "ROLE OF INDUSTRY AND NON-PROFITS, AND THE IMPORTANCE OF PUBLIC-PRIVATE PARTNERSHIPS" (Audience questions will follow)

MODERATOR: Mr. Larry Harlan ~ Executive Director, ExxonMobil Foundation, and Manager, Corporate Citizenship and Community Investments, ExxonMobil

PANELISTS:

- Ms. Lisa Brady Gil ~ Director, Office of Education Policy for the Educational & Productivity Solutions Business, Texas Instruments
- Mr. Eric Reeves ~ Founder and Managing Director, HighBar Companies
- Mr. Gregg Fleisher ~ National AP Director, National Math and Science Initiative
- Ms. Dee Chambliss ~ Director, the Texas STEM Initiative
- Mr. John Shellene ~ President, Sherpa Management Partners

10:35 a.m. BREAK

10:45 a.m. PANEL 2: "ROLE OF EDUCATORS, ADMINISTRATORS, AND HIGHER EDUCATION" (Audience questions will follow)

MODERATOR: Ms. Alice Black ~ Executive Principal, Yvonne A. Ewell Townview Center

PANELISTS:

- Ms. Jovan Wells ~ Principal, Science and Engineering Magnet (SEM) School, Townview Center
- Ms. Jennifer Stimpson, Science Teacher, The Hockaday School
- Dr. Jeanne Gerlach, Dean of Science and Professor of Education, The University of Texas at Arlington
- Dr. Soner Tarim, CEO and Superintendent, Harmony Schools
- Dr. Hobson Wildenthal, Executive Vice President and Provost, The University of Texas at Dallas

September 27, 2011

9:30 a.m.—11:30 a.m.

Townview Magnet High School Auditorium